

February 2018

Hello all! February has some great studies and events going on so make sure you see the flip side for dates / times! Our students have come up with several great ideas for the year 2018 and we could use your help making the connection. If you have ideas or want to volunteer for events please contact me! The students are often challenged to take the lesson outside the walls of the church...follow up with them and encourage them to get out of their comfort zone! Thank you parents!

New Camp 2018

1. All $100 deposits are due by February 28th at the start of the lesson.
2. We will have a parent / informational meeting about camp on 2/18/18 @ 5:00 in the center youth room.
3. We will host a fund raiser on 2/11 and another on 4/29. All students that attend these fund-raisers will be able to "work" off some of the Starting in April I will have quartile parent meetings in efforts to stay connected and updated with you all. These meetings will be on Sunday nights from 5:00-6:00. I will send out reminders closer to times.

Scripture

Each youth is presented with an opportunity to memorize scripture every week. This far we have covered 1 John 4:18-19 / James 4:7-8. Take that chance to memorize scripture with your student! We start a new verse every Wednesday. Take the challenge with them!
